REPORT ON DEPARTMENTAL STUDY TOUR

The Department of Philosophy, organized a STUDY TOUR on 15th December 2021. We started the tour at 11.00am from the college. There are 10 no's of 3rd semester students and all the faculty members of the department attend the tour. In this tour we have visited two monasteries in the Santirbazar sub-division. In the first we have visited Shakyamuni World Peace Pagoda, located in Kalsi, Santirbazar, South Tripura. There Bante Ji gave a lecture on "Buddhism and Ethics: Contemporary Relevance." which is related our 3rd semester syllabus. In his lectured, he mainly highlighted how to we improve the morality in practical life through the practice of Astangika Marga (The Eightfold Path) of Buddhism. After that we have visited Jagannath Mandir/Iscón Temple located at Baikhora, Santirbazar. There Prabhu Nikhil Ji gave a lecture on "The Concept of Purusarthas in Indian Ethics" which is also related our syllabus. After the completion of the lecture they arranged lunch to all of us. In this study tour students have gotten the general conception of Buddhist Ethics and significance of purusarths of our daily life according to Indian Ethics. So they have immensely benefited.

Report on Study Trip organized by Department of Education-2021

The department of Education organized a Study Tour on 28th December, 2021. Study tours are the tours that enhance students' knowledge with practical experiences. It gives very important experience as far as education is concerned. This kind of trips connects the classroom experience with the actual world. It improves the learning experiences of both students and teachers and provides practical experiences as well. This report details the place we visited. During the journey our students had explored many new places. We started our journey at 9.00 am and first we went to Shahid Dhanajoy Smriti Eco-Park that is located in the clean and beautiful South Tripura district. This particular trip aimed at improving the knowledge of students regarding our environment and the worth of saving its all the wonders. During the trip students encountered a number of magnificent natural scenery of the region. After that we went to Pilak which is an archaeological site in South Tripura District. Many images and structures, belonging to Buddhist and Hindu sects have been discovered here since 1927. The antiquities found here are dated to 8th to 12th centuries. This place gives very important information for enhancing our students' historical knowledge and it also related with our course content. Then we had a delicious lunch. The study trip was successfully happened by the joint effort of all the faculties of the Department especially by Head of the Dept. Shri Tirtharam Reang who engaged the students in gaining experiences throughout the trip.
